Central Appalachian Network

The Central Appalachian Network (CAN) is composed of six nonprofits that promote environmentally sustainable community development in Central Appalachia. CAN's goals include strengthening Central Appalachia's healthy food sector through value chain development, increasing the capacity of CAN and CAN partners, and engaging in policy change that supports sustainable development in Central Appalachia. In fiscal year 2015, CAN built local food value chains primarily through educational conferences, technical assistance, and small grants. MACED serves as fiscal sponsor for CAN.

Energy Efficient Enterprises

MACED's Energy Efficient Enterprises project promotes energy efficiency by helping commercial enterprises save money through reduced energy costs, developing packages of information, financing and technical assistance that allow rural businesses and nonprofits to benefit from the opportunities. In fiscal year 2015 we facilitated 8 energy efficiency retrofits and 6 renewable energy installations. A total of $401,364 was invested in these 14 projects, resulting in an estimated $59,959 saved.

Forestry

MACED promotes and expands sustainable forest management by developing and implementing demonstrations and driving supportive policy that provides landowners and wood products businesses with new income opportunities. We help landowners and wood product companies take advantage of potential new value streams, such as the production of certified wood products or income from carbon sequestrations. At the close of fiscal year 2015, with low demand for our inventory of offsets, MACED has set a date of December 31, 2016 to close down the Appalachian Carbon Partnership, which facilitated the sale of carbon offsets. MACED remains committed to forestry as an important sector in Central Appalachia and is exploring other options for supporting and utilizing this important resource.

General Community Development

Historically, MACED has provided administrative support services to and has maintained a joint employer relationship with several small nonprofits whose mission closely aligns with MACED's. Currently MACED provides these services to Kentucky Natural Lands Trust (KNLT). KNLT is a nonprofit conservation organization working to secure funds to protect natural lands and provide for their long-term stewardship.

Expenses $ 1,090,983. including grants of $ 438,027. Revenue $ 52,060.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

The first level of review of the Form 990 is by MACED's vice president for finance and operations , who provides the preparer with the information for the return and works closely with the preparer to ensure its accuracy and completeness. The MACED president reviews the form before signing it. The board's finance committee also reviews the Form 990. Following the finance committee review, the Form 990 is distributed to the board electronically before it is submitted to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The MACED bylaws include a conflict of interest policy that specifies conflicts of interest to be avoided. The board of directors may make exceptions to the policy in specific cases when the situation is fully disclosed to them.

A provision of the conflict of interest policy is that that each director, officer and employee must receive, sign and return a copy of a summary of the conflict of interest policy. Annually, MACED board members and employees sign the summary anew, affirming that they have read and understand the policy.

As part of the annual audit process, board members and other related parties fill out a related party questionnaire on which they report any interests and transactions that could give risk to conflicts of interest. Any conflicts of interest are disclosed as part of the audited financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Annually, the MACED president is evaluated through a process guided by the board executive committee, composed of the board officers (chair, vice-chair, board treasurer and board secretary). The executive committee reports its findings to the board in closed session. After considering the committee's report, the board sets the president's compensation for the following year. The board takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for the CEOs of three to five comparable organizations as well as its knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. The president does not participate in or vote on the decision on the president's compensation. The board's decision on compensation is recorded in minutes which are presented and approved at the following board meeting. This process last took place in December 2014.

The president determines the compensation of other staff, including those who serve as corporate officers, following an annual performance review of each staff member. Along with considerations of equity among staff, the president takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for officer positions in three to five comparable organizations and his knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. Every change in a staff salary is documented in a letter to the staff member.
