MACED 990 Text – FY 2006

The Mountain Association for Community Economic Development (MACED) works with people in Kentucky and Central Appalachia to create economic opportunity, strengthen democracy and support the sustainable use of natural resources.

In fiscal year 2006, MACED and its affiliated nonprofit Appalachian Investment Corporation made 57 loans to small businesses for a total of $3,635,753 invested in its service region. Of these loans, 33 were microloans. Technical assistance was provided to 136 businesses. These efforts created 163 jobs and retained 488 jobs throughout eastern Kentucky and Central Appalachia.

In addition to those activities, MACED provided educational information to forest land owners and engaged in targeted outreach to promote forest land management. MACED researched economic development spending by the state of Kentucky and released a report of the findings.
